

Christians and the Holy Spirit

Christian Religious Education

By the end of the lesson, learners will be able to synthesize key concepts from
Term

1 by creating a "Heroes of Faith" scrapbook highlighting Biblical figures, African ancestors, and modern organizations.

Learning goal

By the end of the lesson, learners will be able to synthesize key concepts from Term 1 by creating a "Heroes of Faith" scrapbook highlighting Biblical figures, African ancestors, and modern organizations.

Key words: Review of key terminology: salvation, reconciliation, ancestors, international relief, Holy Spirit.

Lesson focus: Christians and the Holy Spirit

Who are our Heroes of Faith?

Reviewing Topic 1: Biblical Heroes.

Reviewing Topic 2: Ancestors and Reconciliation.

Reviewing Topic 3: Global Organizations of Service.

Planning Our Scrapbook

Dividing the scrapbook into three sections.

Choosing titles for each page.

Preparing local materials (banana fibers, cards).

Drawing Our Faith History

Illustrating the Creation story or Jesus' service.

Writing about an ancestor who promoted peace.

Highlighting the value of reconciliation.

Faith in Action Today

Identifying the Red Cross or UNICEF.

Explaining how they serve the needy.

Connecting global service to the Holy Spirit.

Sharing Our Journey

Binding the pages together.

Presenting the favorite "Hero of Faith."

Final reflection on Term 1.

Check your understanding

What values do our ancestors teach us?

Which organization helps people in times of war?

How many sections will our scrapbook have?

What local material can we use to tie the pages together?

Write one answer clearly in your notebook.