

1.1 School Holidays / 1A Holiday Plans

English

The learner listens to a short narrative and identifies specific future plans mentioned.

Nakato's Holiday Story

Listen to the story carefully.

Identify the characters.

List the places Nakato plans to visit.

New Holiday Words

Up-country: The village/rural area.

Commence: To start or begin.

Relatives: Family members like aunts and cousins.

Talking About the Future

Use 'am going to' for your own plans.

Use 'is going to' for one person.

Use 'are going to' for many people.

What Are Your Plans?

Ask: "Where are you going to go?"

Answer: "I am going to go to..."

Ask: "Who are you going to see?"

Reading: Our Upcoming Vacation

Read the text silently.

Look for the names of the towns.

Find the dates mentioned.

Writing My Plan

Start with a clear sentence.

Use "I am going to..."

Mention at least two activities.

Check your understanding

What will she do in the village?

Who is she going to visit?

What is another word for 'start'?

Who are your relatives?

Write one answer clearly in your notebook.