

3.4 Final Review and Assessment

English

The learner reflects on personal progress in English during Term 1 and identifies areas of strength.

Learning goal

The learner reflects on personal progress in English during Term 1 and identifies areas of strength.

Lesson focus: 3.4 Final Review and Assessment

Looking Back at Term 1

Review the topics we covered

Share our favorite English activities

Discuss how our writing has improved

Prepare for our final portfolio

What is a Portfolio?

A collection of your best work

Evidence of your learning

Criteria for selection: Neatness, Accuracy, Interest

Organized from start to finish

Selecting Your Best Work

Read your compositions from Week 1 to Week 11

Compare your early work to your recent work

Check for teacher's comments and marks

Pick 3 pieces that show your best English

Creating the Portfolio Structure

Title Page: Name, Class, Subject, Term

Table of Contents: List of selected work

Introduction: A short sentence about the portfolio

Order: Chronological or by topic

Share Your Success!

Present your portfolio to your group

Explain why you chose these pieces

Listen to your friends' work

Give positive feedback

Check your understanding

Which activity helped you improve your English most?

Why is it important to review our work?

What is a portfolio?

What does 'criteria' mean?

Write one answer clearly in your notebook.