

1.1 School Holidays

Where is Nakato going?

Think alone

Pair talk

Share one idea

Point to evidence

Today's mission

I can listen to a story and identify key plans.

Nakato's Holiday Story, New Holiday Words

answer with one reason or example.

listen, talk, try, explain.

Starter: think first

Think: Where is Nakato going?

Pair: compare your first answer with a partner.

Share: connect your answer to Nakato's Holiday Story.

Nakato's Holiday Story

Listen for Nakato's trip to her grandmother up-country.

Listen to the story carefully.

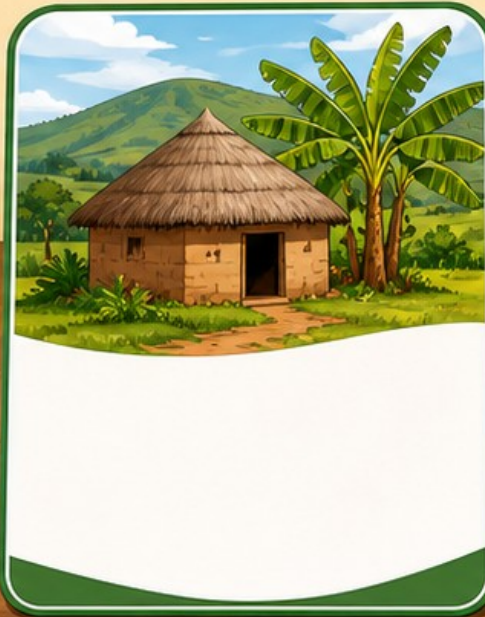

Identify the characters.

List the places Nakato plans to visit.

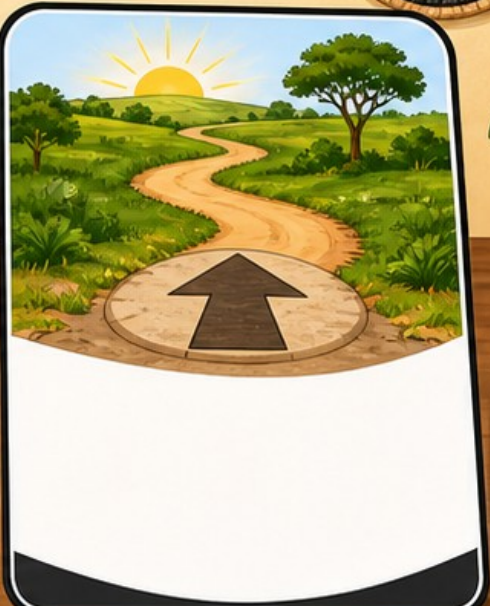

New Holiday Words

Travel: To go from one place to another.

Up-country: Rural areas/the village.

Relatives: Family members.

Try it together

Answer with evidence:

What will she do in the village?

Who is she going to visit?

What is another word for 'start'?

Activity challenge

Listen to the story; whisper two Nakato plans.

Copy the words and definitions neatly.

Repeat together, then do a pronoun substitution drill.

Exit ticket

Where will you be in three weeks?

Use one complete sentence.

Use one key word: Listening for detail

Hand in or read your answer aloud.

Complete sentence

Use a key word

Read aloud or hand in